

Bargain Day.

Next Saturday is Bargain Day at the Fair. See their add in another column.

Burned.

The postoffice and general store of M. S. Foster at Cameron was totally destroyed by fire last Monday night.

Last Week.

This is the last week of the city schools. The teachers have kept open house all this week that the patrons may visit the schools.

The Knights.

The city has been filled by the visiting brethren of the Knights of Pythias ever since Monday, who were attending the grand lodge of this order. A ball was given last night.

Dead.

Mrs. Jack Gallup, of this city died last Wednesday afternoon. She was a member of the Pochantus degree of Independent Red Men. The remains were taken to her old home for burial.

At the Bank.

John and John have shipped their machine works to Buskin, Tenn., and they will follow soon. Buskin is the co-operative colony founded by J. A. Wayland of the Coming Nation.

Brakeman Killed.

Brakeman McBride, of the accommodation train which runs from Wichita to this city and return was run over and killed by his train at Andale Tuesday. His family lives at Wichita. He was past 50 years of age.

What $2.50 Will Do.

The Inter-Mountain Advocate, Warren Foster's paper; Our Nations Crisis, ex-Gov. Waite's paper; The Coming Nation, by the one boss editor and the GAZETTE, all one year. The subscription price for these papers separately is $4.00.

By Fire.

The household goods of Mr. Ireland, J. M. Mulkey and son Owen, in transit from this city to Detroit, Mich., were destroyed by fire in a train wreck near Peru, Ind. The families had preceded the goods to Detroit where they have gone into the salt business.

Found.

Last Monday Mrs. Ambler of this city found some paper notes, and four pieces of the old state bank currency and brought the package to this office. A letter was among them addressed to G. L. Chesbro, Nickerson. Owner can have same by calling for and proving property.

A 49c Sale.

Monday, May 27th 1895 Docherty, Kramer & Thompson inaugurate a 49c sale consisting of articles from most every department in the house, giving the public the greatest bargains ever offered—the articles to be in this sale are innumerable—and for want of space we cannot mention each and every one—take a walk through the store and you will be confronted with large tickets each one telling its story of 49c. Don't miss this chance as you certainly will find something on which you can save money.

A Window Attraction.

The proprietor of the Star clothing house is contemplating engaging Rogers as a window attraction—News. Why not get Atherton with a jag on or Morrill going through the treasurer's office? Either of these gentlemen would make a good showing. Instead of the regular card of explanation the original certificate of character or a fac simile could be used. Come to think of it the explanation card that went with the mummy could be used. Of course, Morrill hasn't been dead 3,000 years, but for all practical purposes he is as dead as Ben's mummy.

Obituary.

Nancy S. Mitchell, wife of W. H. Mitchell died May 18th 1895. Sister Mitchell was the daughter of Michael and America Stiff; was born in Lawrence county Indiana, Dec. 22, 1853 and was 41 years 4 months and 26 days old. She leaves a husband and nine children to mourn her loss. She has been an earnest and consistent Christian for many years, and a member of the U. B. church. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Morgan her pastor. The church was too small to hold the crowd. Sister Mitchell said that she was going home to rest. She left a host of friends to sympathize with the bereaved family.

A Surprise.

Last Thursday evening a company of young people met at the residence of H. N. Johnson on avenue O west and gave a surprise party in honor of Miss Daisy Swanner, who has been staying at Mr. Johnson's for the last four months, but is going to her home in the country soon. The following persons were present: Misses Nettie Dix, Ida Hopper, Minnie Myrick, Ara Johnson, Bessie Sames, Mina Woetzel, Ida Whetzel, Sophia Rader, Doris Dix, Amanda Dix, Ollie Whitel, Amanda and Leona Johnson, and Messrs. E. Hiett, B. Whetzel, A. Rutledge, H. Mangold, E. Bailey, W. Taylor and E. Tyrell. The evening was spent in playing games after which the crowd departed for their homes.

PERSONAL.

John W. Aiton, of Kingman, attended the grand lodge.

Mr. Will Blackburn, of Cameron, was in the city the first part of the week.

Mr. Schlaud, of the Fair has set next Saturday as a bargain day. This house does as it advertises.

Mr. W. A. Hart an old friend of the editor was one among the many from Wichita that attended the Grand Lodge.

Cap O'Leary, of Castleton, was a GAZETTE visitor last Saturday and we had strawberries Sunday as a consequence.

Editor Cooper, of the Lyons Democrat came down Tuesday to attend the Grand Lodge. Mr. Cooper is postmaster of that city.

Mr. E. Stotts is again landlord of the Grand Central hotel. He wants to meet his old patrons, and anyone else who wants a good place to stop while in the city.

Mr. Ben Ragland, of the western part of the county has announced himself as a candidate for register of deeds. Mr. Ragland is too honest a man to think of standing any show this fall. The slate is made up Mr. Ragland.

Read Chairman Keet's call for a meeting of the county central meeting, Friday, May 31.

At the Universalist Church.

Rev. J. E. Keyes, an eloquent preacher and fine soloist from Iowa is engaged for a week of meetings at the Universalist church. Large audiences are present every night.

There will be three services on Sunday; at 11 a. m. 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday meetings will be held at the auditorium. If too cold the services will be held at the church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Advertised Letters.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the Hutchinson postoffice May 23, 1895:

LADIES' LIST.

Baker, Miss May. Cain, Mrs. Q. J. Maxey, Miss Minnie. Phillips, Mrs. E. H. Reuner, Estella J. Westermeyer, Miss Lizzie.

GENTLEMEN'S LIST.

Basselman, Geo. Crane, John U. S. Flanagan, J. Lucas, H. L. Luntz, E. A. March, W. R. Ayres, J. H. Nicholson, Wm. Solomon, Thomas. Wilson, W. L. Young, Lewis.

Parties calling for any of the above named letters will please say, advertised.

District Court.

As we went to press last week the attorney for Rogers was making a plea for an extension of the case. This the court would not grant. Judge Martin ordered that he be kept under the surveillance of the sheriff and appointed Drs. Wilson, Sidlinger and Shirer to attend him and get him able to stand trial and that he would adjourn court from day to day until he was able. Friday Rogers was no better when court was called when judge Martin dismissed the jury until yesterday.

Court was called yesterday morning. The physicians reported Rogers able to stand trial. In the afternoon he was brought into the court room on a cot. The witnesses for the state are being examined this afternoon.

On Monday sentence was pronounced on W. A. Woodrow, for forgery. He was given 2 years in the state penitentiary.

Seth Jones, Eph Bane, and J. M. Beam, all grand jury cases, were sentenced to the county jail and one hundred dollars fine on each count. Bane has eight counts, Beam three and Jones three. All the cases together with that of Woodrow have been appealed.

A $1.00 Book for 25 Cents.

The great war series. SHENANDOAH. A Story of Sheridan's Great Ride, by J. P. Tracy.

This is one of the most fascinating stories ever emanating from the pen of an American author, and is hailed with delight by all who have read it. It is rapidly becoming very popular and is creating a furore wherever introduced. It is a love story pure and simple—founded on the great achievements of Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley during the late civil war, and the descriptions of the battle of Winchester and of Sheridan's Great Ride are here given as seen by an eye-witness. This is truly a wonderful book. The next number is still better and more good things are to follow. All old soldiers, their wives and children will read this great book and enjoy it. The book contains 224 pages, printed on fine paper, handsomely illustrated, and bound in illuminated cover. Published by the Novelist Publishing Co., 61 Beekman St., New York City and sold throughout the United States and Canada for the low price of 25 cents. All newsdealers handle it.
